

Public Protection Bulletin 22nd May 2024

Dear colleague,

People continue to tell us these bulletins are a valuable source of information and we will continue to seek out the latest news, research, articles and events. In order to ensure that the bulletin meets the needs of our readers in Glasgow, we have included a link to a short survey so that you can tell us what you think of the bulletin and how it could be improved. We would very much appreciate it if you would take 5 minutes to complete it - https://www.smartsurvey.co.uk/s/6XEUMG/

Mental Health Awareness week took place from  $15^{th} - 19^{th}$  May. This year's theme was movement and what it can do for our mental health and wellbeing. Physical activity and movement can act as a brilliant addition to traditional types of treatment for mental health conditions and can provide community and connection for people who might be isolated or marginalised by their mental health condition. Find out more on the Mental Health Foundation website

As usual, this edition carries a full range of research, articles, activities, and events covering the full spectrum of public protection. We hope that you find something of interest to you in the articles below.

If you have something new to share or publicise that might be of interest to our subscribers, then please do not hesitate to get in touch with Michelle Brown at Michelle.Brown2@glasgow.gov.uk

Please stay safe and healthy. Best wishes

Colin Anderson, Independent Chair Adult Support & Protection Committee/Child Protection Committee
