Previous minutes	Glasgow TSI have requested that a representative from the HSCP Communications Team contact them to discuss the nature of communications proposed to be undertaken at city wide and locality level to enable incorporation into its annual work plan which is currently being prepared.	Shona Stephen	This will be taken forward by the Communications Team	Allison Eccles, Head of Business Development
8	To help me better understand the paper can you advise - What were the savings in the mental health budget 15/16 and 16/17? - Where I could access the mental health strategy document for the city?	Shona Stephen	Recurring savings taken in 15/16 were £0.1m from MH Commissioning, and £0.8m in 16/17 from Mental Health Commissioning and a ward closure. The Mental Health Strategy for the city is outlined within the "Strategy Map" for mental health within the IJB's Strategic Plan, available at https://www.glasgow.gov.uk/index.aspx?articleid=17849	Susanne Millar, Chief Officer: Strategy, Planning and Commissioning / Chief Social Work Officer
12	At the previous IJB meeting where this was discussed it was agreed that there would be contact with	Shona Stephen	No detailed discussions have been entered into with any third sector organisations at this stage, as it would be premature to do so without necessary approvals. 	the 3rd Sector to discuss its role and contribution to the hub. Can you confirm who was contacted and what, if any, action has resulted?		have kept local networks informed and engaged in the process to date through for example the Public Partnership Forum and at a number of locality planning events, which have included attendees from the third sector. At the Board meeting on the 21st September Ann Marie Rafferty had confirmed that we would involve the third sector as part of the engagement process. The report to the Board for the meeting on the 15th February seeks approval to begin the engagement process from March this year. We will ensure that the third sector organisations are fully included in the next stages of development of the business case for the hub, and will take this forward following the IJB's consideration of the paper on 15th February.
