The audit report was presented to the Committee for consideration and to remit to the IJB on 19th September for approval. The key message from the report was an unqualified opinion; and acknowledged that there was sound budgeting processes in place.

A further key message was that the IJB should continue to engage with the Council regarding the transfer of Cordia homecare services by 30th September. The significant findings were outlined at Exhibit 3 of the report, which included one change to the accounting treatment in hosted services. An action plan for 2017/18 was detailed at Appendix 1 which provided detail of recommendations, agreed management actions; and timescales and follow up points from the 2016/17 audit. Officers extended thanks to HSCP officers for their support in producing the report.

Members discussed the Cordia transfer, and the budget pressures and financial risk around overspending on service provision currently borne by Cordia, as purchased service prices could potentially rise in year. Cllr Andrew, as Chair of Cordia, highlighted challenges of in year savings and increasing demand. Sharon Wearing advised that budget work was outstanding at this stage, but a report would be presented to the IJB on 19th September as part of the due diligence process.

Clare Hughes presented a report to provide the IJB Finance and Audit Committee with a summary of Care Inspectorate activity within directly provided older people’s residential and day care services in the period August 2017- July 2018. The new Health and Social Care Standards came in to effect in April 2018 and the older people’s inspection was under the new methodology. The care inspectorate grades for residential care homes were outlined in the table in section 4 of the report; and the grades had been maintained or improved since the previous inspection.

In relation to the grades of ‘3’ at Riverside Care Home, officers advised that they were working with the Care Inspectorate on a continuous improvement plan; and the Care Inspectorate was pleased with the progress made. Officers also reported that the grading for Crossmyloof had greatly improved since the last inspection and that good feedback had been received from Inspectors and families.

The grades for day care services were outlined, as per the table at section 5 of the report; and members advised there had been improvement in most areas with high standards of care reported.

Hawthorn House Day Care would be included in the next report; and members were informed that grade 6’s had been received across all themes. The day care unit was seen as sector leading, providing excellent care. Operational planning is underway to deliver the last two new build care homes on Blawarthill and Leithland Road sites in 2019.

Members referred to the grades at Budhill Day Care, querying why there had been a reduction in grades from the previous inspection. Officers explained that there has been a number of staff changes which had impacted staff knowledge of care direct support; officers were conducting some development work with staff and it was hoped that there would be improvement in the next inspection.

The score at Riverside Care Home was also discussed and members queried if more could be done in the transition stage. Officers reported that they had received good feedback on the transition stage. The issue was bringing people together in the dementia unit and the challenges that arose from moving people into one unit. A robust lessons learned exercise was conducted and this would be utilised for the next two care homes; and there would be a phased approach to the transition.

Members were also informed of good examples of community engagement within the care homes, including educational links with local nurseries and physical activities. Officers were also working with Health Improvement to develop work with volunteers.

The Care Inspectorate made a number of recommendations and requirements as part of their findings from the most recent inspections across the unit and some of these were outlined in the table at section 4.1. Officers would be focusing on the grades of '3' to ensure these were improved upon and did not risk being graded a '2'. The future developments were also outlined.

Members discussed the grades of '3' for management and leadership and queried what the challenges were. Officers stated that there were challenges around quality and support; there was a need to change culture through coaching and supervision.
