6. HSCP PERFORMANCE REPORT Q1 2019/20

Duncan Goldie presented the Joint Performance Report for the Health and Social Care Partnership for Quarter 1 of 2019/20.

The Chair advised that discussions took place at pre agenda regarding A&E attendance and admissions; and a briefing note was produced and shared with the Chair and Vice Chair. The briefing will now be circulated to all members and Stephen Fitzpatrick will attend the December meeting to deliver a presentation on A&E attendance and admissions for Quarter 2 2019/20; and provide analysis on the winter position.

Members further discussed A&E attendance and admissions; and the increased numbers of those presenting in Glasgow in comparison to Scotland. Officers advised that Susanne Millar and Jonathan Best were working with Leads and there is an Unscheduled Care Steering Group. There are also issues of complexity and those patients with complex needs in the system. Officers reported that August showed the highest month in admissions; and that Health staff are under pressure, as well as Social Work teams in hospitals.

Members also outlined their concerns of targets set by the Scottish Government and the impact this had upon staff.

The Committee discussed reporting of performance and the data period presented to the Committee, as this was not always current. Officers explained that the unscheduled care data was aligned to the Ministerial Strategic Group and that there is a delay in obtaining this data for presentation to the Committee. The presentation to the December meeting will give an overview on the position for Quarter 2; and will include data for October, if this is available.

Officers are also reviewing all performance data to establish if this can be presented to the Committee earlier.

The IJB Finance, Audit and Scrutiny Committee:

- a) noted the attached performance report;
- b) considered the exceptions highlighted in section 4.4;
- c) reviewed and discussed performance with the Strategic Lead for Homelessness and Criminal Justice.

CRIMINAL JUSTICE

Pat Togher delivered a presentation to the Committee on criminal justice performance. The performance context was outlined; key performance indicators and performance rates were also provided and the Committee informed if targets were being met, and also of the direction of travel from the previous quarter.

Officers explained that a new reporting system had been implemented in August and this was used to identify areas of issues in performance and allow these to be addressed; there have been some positive results and improved targets.

Issues were outlined in relation to performance in unpaid work placements and trying to engage with individuals. Officers were working with the judicial office to put systems in place to make contact with people following sentencing. The Committee were reassured that there were no issues with capacity in the community.

Officers also reported on the key challenges within criminal justice; including increased poverty/inequalities consequence of Universal Credit and impact on crime; impact of PASS (presumption against short term sentencing) on public protection; and impact of SPS removal of all Prison Throughcare Officers – officers were working with the third sector to mitigate this.

The Committee were informed of developments, including the introduction of Caledonian Domestic Abuse model in June 2019; the development of the Women's Community Custody Unit, which has a proposed operational date of December 2020; the introduction of trauma informed practice; and the review of existing performance reporting structure. Officers also reported that Tomorrow's Women Glasgow won an award at the COSLA Excellence Awards 2019, in Category Two, 'Achieving Better Outcomes in Partnership'.

The Committee discussed the presentation and issues with community payback orders and unpaid work placements. The Committee also acknowledged the pressures on staff within the prison service; including, sickness absence; no new resources; and inability to manage unpredictable prisoner behaviour.

HOMELESSNESS

Pat Togher delivered a presentation on homelessness performance. The performance context was outlined; key performance indicators and performance rates were provided and the Committee informed if targets were being met, and also the direction of travel from the previous quarter. All performance rates were reported as below Scottish Government targets.

Officers advised of the Vanguard approach and stated that this was yielding significant progress. A period of reflection would take place and the pilot from the South would be replicated in the North East and then North West of the city. The Committee were informed that staff were fully embracing the approach.

Officers also reported on the challenges within homelessness, including, demonstrating Rapid Rehousing Transition Plan (RRTP) implementation and effectiveness against targets; driving Audit Scotland 2018 Review Group recommendations in a complex environment; delivery of the HSCP 10 year plan; promote a strong performance culture which will support the delivery of existing targets; and the impact of SPS removing Prison Throughcare Service on those with most complex needs.

OFFICIAL

The Committee were advised of improvement planning, with the introduction of four weekly performance review structure; the introduction of 'phase 1' RRTP (2019/20-24/25); the introduction of Housing First Approach; and to complete the tendering process for Alliance model.

Members welcomed the presentation and discussed the targets included in the report, querying if bed and breakfast targets could be included in future reports; and also consideration to be given as to what other targets could be included, in addition to the mandatory reporting Scottish Government targets. Officers advised that the use of bed and breakfasts is reported on a four weekly basis for officers to review performance; and routine quality inspections also take place on premises.

Pat Togher

Members also discussed the statutory requirement and failure to accommodate issue in Glasgow, which is higher than elsewhere in Scotland. Members highlighted that statutory duty was not being met in the interim for emergency accommodation; and questioned what is happening presently to meet statutory requirements.

Officers explained that there is a requirement to provide accommodation at point of entry, but that there are instances when the client refuses the type of accommodation offered. Also the recording mechanism in Glasgow is different, but this provides increased transparency.

Pat also advised that he had attended a walk-around in the city with the Simon Community and that there was confidence in the system. Officers explained that although offers are made, not all of these are accepted by people. There are instances when people do not want to engage with the service, but the Simon Community is working to make services attractive and accessible, to encourage engagement.

Members stated that there was no criticism of staff who were under pressure in these circumstances; and that they were appreciated.

It was agreed that a report would be presented to the Committee in April 2020 on homelessness; the Housing First approach and some information on the first 3-6 months of the Rapid Rehousing Transition Plan work. A short briefing will also be provided for the Committee on statutory duty; what data is available and what measures are in place at present.

7. RAPID REHOUSING TRANSITION PLAN - UPDATE

Pat Togher presented a report to update the IJB Finance, Audit and Scrutiny Committee on the development of the Rapid Rehousing Transition Plan (RRTP) following initial financial allocation from the Scottish Government. This report provides further clarity on spend since initial approval of Rapid Rehousing Transition Plan spend at IJB on 18th September 2019. The proposals were outlined at section 3 of the report.

Member discussed the allocation and how officers would respond to the shortfall in the original request; and questioned how there could be a strategic approach if the detail of future allocation was unknown. Officers explained that plans will be made based on the allocation and the resource will be used in the most effective way. The funding is welcomed and officers have indicated to the Scottish Government that recurring funding is required.

Officers reported that the IJB has supported the Children's Transformation Programme and the vision and aspiration to reduce the numbers of children and young people becoming looked after and those in high cost care and the reinvestment in community based family support services. There has been a slow-down of the number of children entering the formal care system since 2016; and the numbers of children and young people in fostering and in residential placements has reduced from 1420 in July 2016 to 1090 in August 2019.

OFFICIAL

Members discussed the evaluation of the Family Assessment and Contact Team and the Glasgow Infant and Family Team approaches detailed at section 3 of the report; and questioned how staff are advised and trained; if the best approach will not be known until 2021, when findings are reported.

Officers provided assurance that learning is discussed and disseminated through monthly meetings. There are also training programmes in place for staff and continuous support provided.

11. PRIMARY CARE IMPROVEMENT PLAN (PCIP) – PROGRESS APRIL TO SEPTEMBER 2019

Gary Dover presented a report to update the IJB Finance, Audit and Scrutiny Committee on the progress made since April 2019 to implement Glasgow's Primary Care Improvement Plan. Officers reported on the risks of the Plan including recruitment challenges, financial challenges and timescales. The programme was at the mid-point; and the next steps would be to engage more at a local level with GPs. Events had taken place at a city-wide level and feedback received was for more local engagement.

Officers also advised that as the Plan took place in phases, there were a number of GPs that had no resource yet; therefore this would take place over the next period of the Plan. Reasonable progress had been made, although there are substantial challenges as outlined. The Implementation Tracker submitted to the Scottish Government is also appended to the report; there are some errors included which will be updated and published on the HSCP website.

Gary Dover

Members discussed the issues and risks reported by Officers; querying if these had been shared with the Scottish Government. Officers confirmed that concerns had been shared through the National Oversight Group and the Family Medical Services group. The GP sub group had also raised concern of affordability of the programme; and there are also financial issues related to superannuation and pay uplift. The risks in relation to recruitment are that there are issues in recruiting professionals, including physiotherapists and experienced pharmacists. Officers are exploring options for skill mix and establishing what duties can be carried out by which professionals.

The Committee considered the concerns raised and agreed that these would be referred back to the IJB. The Committee agreed that a briefing note will be produced and presented to the IJB, under the Chair of the IJB Finance, Audit and Scrutiny Committee update.
