1. Purpose

- 1.1. To provide an update on and seek approval for a number of appointments to the IJB.

2. Background

- 2.1. The IJB in December 2021 noted that stakeholder members representing patients, service users, the third sector and the independent sector were all nearing the end of their three year term as IJB members, and agreed that the Chief Officer should contact relevant stakeholder groups to either confirm that the current members should remain on the IJB for a further term, or to identify new nominees.
- 2.2. There remains a vacancy on the IJB for a Carer representative.
- 2.3. In addition, Flavia Tudoreanu has left her post in NHS Greater Glasgow and Clyde as a Non-Executive Board Member, and subsequently her membership of Glasgow City IJB has ended. This has also resulted in a vacancy on the IJB Finance, Audit and Scrutiny Committee.
- 2.4. Patrick Flynn, Director of City Development has retired from Glasgow City Council, and subsequently his membership of Glasgow City IJB, as a non-voting professional member, has ended.
- 2.5. The Public Engagement Committee held a session in August 2021 to discuss representation on the Committee from the Independent Sector, Third Sector and a young person's representative.

3. IJB Membership

- 3.1 Locality Engagement Forums were tasked with co-ordinating a process to identify interested parties for the health care and social care stakeholder roles on the IJB. Representatives for the third and independent sector were sought by nominations via established engagement channels. The nominations were reviewed by Susanne Millar, Chief Officer, on the basis of their supporting statements. Subsequently the following individuals are nominated for membership of the IJB for three years, and require IJB approval:

Category	Applications received	Previous representative	Nomination
Health Care User	5	Ann Souter	John Ferguson
Social Care User		Anne Scott	Mary McPherson
Independent Sector	3	Peter Millar	Ruth McIntyre
Third Sector	0	Shona Stephen	TBC

- 3.2 The Third Sector stakeholder representative position was previously held by Shona Stephen. The Third Sector Health and Wellbeing Network is the appropriate forum from which to seek third sector representation on the IJB. This will be a democratic election process, however this process has not yet completed. Shona's substitute, Ian Bruce, is able to attend the IJB to ensure continuity until a new representative is identified, which is anticipated to be later this year.
- 3.3 The recruitment of Glasgow Carers' Champion is ongoing. This role will include representation on Glasgow City IJB.
- 3.4 NHS Greater Glasgow and Clyde have confirmed that Ketki Miles will provide cover as a Health Board Voting Member on Glasgow City IJB whilst recruitment is ongoing to replace Flavia Tudoreanu.
- 3.5 Glasgow City Council has confirmed Stephen Gibson, who has recently been appointed as the Divisional Director with strategic lead responsibilities for Housing, Planning and Building Standards, will replace Patrick Flynn as a non-voting professional member on Glasgow City IJB.
- 3.6 The Public Engagement Committee undertook to be open to inviting any persons who might be considered to have a valid or specific interest to present the perspective of groups/communities/stakeholders on any given discussion or subject matter. The Independent Sector and Third Sector will have a role in supporting the Public Engagement Committee, to bring this into line with the IJB, and these roles will be undertaken by David Reilly and Sheena Arthur respectively. Options are being explored for engaging with young people as part of a Members' role on the Committee and will be presented to the Chair/Vice Chair for consideration.
- 3.7 It is further confirmed that, following the completion of his term as Chair of the IJB (on 8th February 2022), Simon Carr has reverted back to Vice Chair. Cllr Mhairi Hunter has taken up the role of the Chair from 8th February 2022 for one year.

4. Committee Appointments

- 4.1 As per regulations and the IJB's own Standing Orders, appointment of members to IJB Committees is a matter for the IJB itself. Following the process of identifying stakeholder members of the IJB, and subject to approval at 3.1, discussions will take place with successful candidates regarding the existing vacancies on the IJB's Committees. The current committee membership is as follows.
