OFFICIAL

Relevance to Integration Joint Board Strategic Plan:

Strong, high quality Families For Children services support the delivery of key strategic priorities of Strengthening Communities to Reduce Harm, and Building a Sustainable Future.

Implications for Health and Social Care Partnership:

Reference to National Health & Wellbeing Outcome:

Foster care and adoption contributes to some of the key National outcomes in terms of improving outcomes for children and young people and improving support for foster carers and adopters in order to ensure that children and young people who use health and social care services have positive experiences of those services, and have their dignity respected. Key to any improvements is to ensure that children and young people are safe from harm and delivering effective services which make efficient use of health and social care services. Such outcomes are aligned to the HSCP's transformation of Children's services agenda and the desire to shift the balance of care, and secure better outcomes for all children and young people living in the City.

Personnel:

Some staff may be asked to work differently to support the development of tests of change in order to explore approaches which are effective in meeting children, young people and carers' needs.

Carers:

Foster carers and adopters are key to the effective delivery of services and meeting good permanence outcomes for care experienced children and young people. This paper presents the outcome of recent inspection of the fostering and adoption services, and references proposals for improving the services, taking into account the findings of the inspection and feedback from children, young people and carers.

Provider Organisations:

None.

Equalities:

The report is referencing current practice and outcomes, and proposals for next steps, and as such an EQIA is not deemed necessary at this stage. The wider Children's Transformation Programme, of which the work detailed in this report is a part, has been subject to a recent EQIA.

Fairer Scotland Compliance:

The Children's Transformation Programme actively seeks to reduce inequalities and to support children, young people and carers to improve their quality of life and reduce the impact of health and social inequalities.

Financial:

Some of the requirements and recommendations made within the inspection reports may have financial implications which, if to be considered, require further scrutiny.

OFFICIAL

Legal:	Normal legal processes and procedures for Glasgow City Council will be followed in relation to developing practitioners' roles to support children, young people and carers in accordance with feedback about the service and continuous improvement of the service.
Economic Impact:	Providing children and young people with high quality care makes best use of resources, and helps to ensure positive long-term outcomes, thereby reducing future need for further specialist supports, including Adult Services.
Sustainability:	This work fully aligns with the Christie Commission report the principles of GIRFEC, the children's transformational change programme and the aspirations of 'The Promise,' which emphasise the need to deliver the right high-quality support at the right time to improve outcomes. Given that the key point of leverage to deliver the transformational change programme is to develop practice at the frontline – at the point of interaction with children, young people and their families and carers – the current workforce represents a considerable resource in terms of its contribution to achieving sustainable change across all supports and services to ensure best outcomes.
Sustainable Procurement and Article 19:	None.
Risk Implications:	Good support to foster carers and adopters ensures they feel valued. Should this not be provided there is a risk that foster carers will leave the service and either cease to foster or join private or third sector fostering agencies creating a financial risk to the service as well as a risk that care placements cannot be provide when needed. For adopters if support is not provided then this could lead to adoption breakdowns which would be detrimental to all concerned.
Implications for Glasgow City Council:	None.
Implications for NHS Greater Glasgow & Clyde:	None.

2. Inspection Process and Scope

- 2.1 The Care Inspectorate gave notice on 11th April 2023 of their intention to conduct an inspection of Glasgow City HSCP's fostering and adoption services. The inspection undertaken between 16th May and 15th June 2023, by three inspectors from the Care Inspectorate, assisted by some additional Care Inspectorate staff.
- 2.2 In preparation, the inspectors reviewed existing information which included previous inspection findings, registration information, information submitted by the service and intelligence gathered since the previous inspection.
- 2.3 In advance, the fostering and adoption services uploaded evidence to Sharepoint folders, and issued questionnaires to staff, foster carers, adopters, children and young people.
- 2.4 While there are separate lead Inspectors and processes for each of the services, some provided evidence and inspection activity overlapped, for example in relation to permanence planning.
- 2.5 The inspection activity was largely conducted remotely, via Microsoft Teams, though the inspectors were available to meet in person with carers, adopters, children and young people.
- 2.6 The fostering inspectors consulted with 3 young people; 37 foster carers; 25 staff; 7 external professionals; 2 Agency Decision Makers; 3 Lay Panel members; 8 Team Leaders; 1 Head of Service and 1 locality Service Manager. In relation to adoption, the inspectors spoke to 3 adopted children; 14 adopters; 15 staff members; 2 external agencies; and 10 people at a focus group.
- 2.7 In addition, the Inspection Team held focus groups with staff, and observed online Fostering and Adoption Panels, which had a mixture of cases.

3. Scoring methodology and outcomes

- 3.1 Areas of inspection for both services focused on three Quality Indicators, using the Care Inspectorate scoring system of a six point scale where 1 is unsatisfactory and 6 is excellent.
- 3.2 Each Quality Indicators was scored on subheadings, and the Care Inspectorate system selects the lowest score across the subheadings as the overall score for that particular Quality Indicator.

Fostering Service

How well do we support people's wellbeing?	3 - Adequate

1.2 Children, young people and adults get the most out of life	4 - Good
1.3 Children, young people and adults' health and wellbeing benefits from the care and support they experience	5 - Very Good
1.4 Children, young people, adults and their caregiver families get the service that is right for them	3 - Adequate
How good is our leadership?	3 - Adequate
2.2 Quality assurance and improvement are led well	3 - Adequate
How well is our care and support planned?	4 - Good
5.1 Assessment and care planning reflects the outcomes and wishes of children, young people and adults	4 - Good

- 3.3 Key findings from the fostering inspection were that children and young people experienced supportive, enduring relationships with fostering families that provided them with a sense of belonging, and that children were supported to maintain meaningful relationships with extended family members, significant birth family members and were involved in the wider community.
- 3.4 Inspectors recognised that foster carers valued genuine trusting relationships, and that staff were skilled at supporting them. They noted that the service has committed carers and staff with knowledge and skill.
- 3.5 The inspection team found there was no consistent approach to matching children and young people's needs to the skills of the caregiver family, and they felt there was an inconsistent overview of key processes. They noted that robust quality assurance processes are required to improve consistency of practice.
- 3.6 In terms of care planning for children and young people in foster care, it was noted that some experienced delays in moving to their 'forever families', and inspectors noted that tracking of permanency and permanence panels should be improved to ensure consistency of experience and outcomes for all children and young people.
- 3.7 Inspectors were pleased that young people were able to remain with their foster families beyond the age of 18 years, however they highlighted that processes around this were unclear and not always followed, which resulted in the service operating beyond current registration at times.

 - The services promote learning and development across fostering and adoptive households
 - Planning for children is complex and delayed, and we need to develop systems and supports to address this through recording/tracking.
