

Engagement Opportunities

Review of West Glasgow Minor Injuries Services

We have arranged two engagement opportunities for you to get involved and comment on the NHS Greater Glasgow and Clyde and Glasgow City Integration Joint Board joint review of the West Glasgow Minor Injuries Service – either on:

Wednesday 6 September 2017

in

Maryhill Health & Care Centre,

51 Gairbraid Avenue, G20 8FB

at

7.00pm

~~~~~ or ~~~~~

Tuesday 12 September 2017

in

Drumchapel Community Centre,

320 Kinfauns Drive, G15 7HA

at

1.30pm

The Review is looking at the options for Minor Injuries Services for the residents of West Glasgow including:

- re-opening services at Yorkhill, or
- transferring services to Gartnavel, or
- the status quo with the service at Yorkhill closed

For more information on the Review and the options being considered can be view at: <https://glasgowcity.hscp.scot/consultations-and-engagement>

If you wish to comment on the joint Review of West Minor Injuries Services please email: SW\_CommunicationsUnit@glasgow.gov.uk or write to Hamish Battye, Commonwealth House, 32 Albion Street, Glasgow, G1 1LH (*marked 'Review of West Minor Injuries Service) by 8 September 2017