Pathways in to Health and Care Services

Know Who To Turn To

- Self Care and NHS Inform www.nhsinform.scot
For minor illnesses and injuries that can be treated safely at home with over the counter medication
For general information such as pharmacy opening times or general health and well being advice
- Your Local Pharmacy
For advice on common ailments such as coughs, colds, sore throat, stomach upsets etc
For emergency contraception
Pharmacy First - for Urinary Tract Infections (Women) and Impetigo (All)
Minor Ailments Service – advice, and sometimes treatment, for those who don't usually pay for prescriptions
- Your GP
See your GP if you have an illness or health concern that isn't going away e.g. vomiting, earache, backache, stomach pains etc
GPs monitor long term health conditions, can provide minor surgery and supply prescriptions for medication
GPs provide routine contraception, immunisations and can refer you to other services
GPs do not deal with issues connected to eye health or dental health

Know Who To Turn To

- Eye Care and Dental Health

If you have a problem with your eyes visit your local optometrist

If you have an eye INJURY visit your local Accident and Emergency Dept (or Royal Hospital for Children)

See your local NHS dentist for routine check ups, procedures and emergency care (within hours)

If you have a dental emergency out of hours call NHS 24 on 111

A dental emergency is: acute pain, facial swelling, trauma/injury or bleeding from the mouth

- Mental Health

First point of access is usually via GP then referral to Community Mental Health Services

Range of interventions available depending on the individual's illness

Community and Third Sector organisations deliver a wide range of mental health services

Mental Health Crisis Team for out of hours emergencies – for people already known to MH Services

If you are concerned someone might harm themselves or others call 999

Emergency Social Work Service Out of Hours can offer advice: 0300 343 1505

- Podiatry

Personal footcare is no longer offered by the NHS – this includes nail cutting, skin care and shoe fitting

Exceptions are people with certain long term health conditions

Several voluntary personal footcare schemes operate in Glasgow

Emergency and Out of Hours Care

- NHS 24

If you are unwell and need to speak to someone before your GP or Dental Practice re-opens

- Evenings/Weekends/Holidays

Will give advice on either managing symptoms at home, when to visit pharmacy services, arrange an on call GP or other health professionals

Call 111

- Emergency Social Work Services

Assessment and intervention in emergency circumstances that cannot wait until a local social work service office re-opens

Call 0300 343 1505

- Serious Injuries and Life Threatening Emergencies

For accidents or serious emergencies e.g. cardiac failure, stroke, head injury, serious wounds

Visit your nearest Accident and Emergency Department (Queen Elizabeth Hospital or Glasgow Royal Infirmary) or for children the Royal Hospital for Children

If you need immediate help Call 999

Equal Access to Services

Everyone, in law, is entitled to protection from unfair discrimination due to their protected characteristics. The HSCP believes everyone should have equal access to our services.

- If you do not speak, read or write English as a first language
You are entitled to access our interpreting service (this may be telephone or remote interpreting)
You are entitled to have information, including appointment letters etc in a format that is best for you
You are entitled to expect our staff to have been trained in equalities sensitive practice
- If you have a disability including a learning disability
You are entitled to information, including appointment letters etc in a format that is best for you including in audio, braille, easy read, large print or with a BSL interpreter present
You are entitled to have a carer, advocate or person of your choice present for discussions and decisions about your care, as long as you are deemed to have capacity
You are entitled to expect that our buildings and services will be accessible, or that we will offer alternatives to you if they are not
- If you are part of a protected characteristics group
We carry out Equality Impact Assessments on all of our policies to assess if they unfairly discriminate against any protected characteristics groups
